ABSTRACT

The non-annotated bibliography of resource materials used in the five-volume report of a study of trends in segregation of Hispanic students contains nearly 200 general references and 27 citations of relevant legal cases. Organized alphabetically by author, the general reference section includes citations of articles, books, papers, dissertations, letters, hearings, and government documents. Most are dated in the 1970's, but some are dated as early as 1952. The section on legal resources is organized alphabetically by case name, and notes appropriate legal information sources. (SB)
